We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level, and poor market conditions will likely impact our capacity to pay you.

Further information on risks is detailed in the Company's annual report available in the literature library on www.aberdeendiversified.co.uk/en/literature-library.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

The Company borrows/ may borrow in order to purchase assets, and this may magnify gains or losses. Shares in the Company may trade at a discount to their Net Asset Value, which may adversely affect the value of your investment, particularly when you come to sell your shares.

Investment performance information

The Company is invested in a multi-asset portfolio of quoted and unquoted securities and other assets which the Manager is seeking to realise in an orderly manner so as to optimise value for shareholders. The Company is denominated in Sterling and is invested in assets denominated in a range of different currencies, so fluctuations in exchange rates could affect the values at which assets are realised.

The objective of the Company is now to realise all existing assets in the Company's portfolio. Given the strategy of the Company, there is no meaningful index comparator.

What could affect my return positively?

A well-judged disposal of assets could improve the net asset value of the Company and therefore returns.

What could affect my return negatively?

A poorly-judged disposal strategy or the mis-timing of disposals could result in poor returns with net proceeds less than an asset's carrying value. Movements in exchange rates relative to Sterling may affect returns. Income distributions to shareholders will necessarily reduce as the realisation process proceeds therefore whilst the Company will seek to pay sufficient dividends to maintain investment trust status, investors should not rely on the Company's historic dividend record for an indication of future payments.

The Company is a listed Investment Company and is not subject to redemptions/subscriptions. However if the Company were to be wound up under severely adverse market conditions, the reported NAV may significantly overstate the realisable value of the assets in the portfolio and the amounts distributed per share may be less than the reported NAV. The liquidity profile of the portfolio may affect the degree of discount that would be applied. There is no guarantee that an asset's value as reported in the accounts will be achieved in an open market sale. The Company will be required to repay any borrowings before any distribution to shareholders.

What happens if the Company is unable to pay out?

As a shareholder in the Company, you would not be able to make a claim to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme about the Company in the event that the Company is unable to pay dividends to you or if it were unable to pay any amounts due to you on the winding up of the Company.

What are the costs?

This disclosure has been prepared with reference to the Financial Conduct Authority's Statement on forbearance in relation to investment trust disclosure requirements dated 19 September 2024. It does not seek to comply with the requirements of the PRIIPS Regulation in this regard.

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The figures are estimates and may change in the future. We have not included operating costs, which are paid by the Company, on the basis that the return that you may receive will depend on the Company's share price performance and there is no direct link between the Company's share price and the costs that it pays. The operating costs incurred by the Company (together with other market factors) can affect the share price of the Company.
